November 20, 2020

Dear KSDS families,

I want to thank everyone in advance for your support, patience, flexibility, and understanding during this time. At KSDS, our goal continues to be to keep our community safe as we care for our students. Given recent rapidly rising Covid-19 metrics in our area and recognizing that many families will welcome new household members during the upcoming holiday weekend, we will make the following schedule change. KSDS will revert to virtual learning for all grades from Monday, November 30 through Friday, December 4. The Goldsmith Early Childhood Center will remain open.

The KSDS Health and Safety Committee continues to closely monitor the rapidly changing situation. The week of virtual learning will provide us the time to determine the ideal learning mode for the entire KSDS community in the following weeks. After the holiday weekend and before Wednesday December 2nd, we will update families in order to provide more calendar information. In order to return to our hybrid learning model as soon as possible, it is critical that all KSDS families and faculty continue to adhere to our Ethical Covenant, even in a period of virtual learning.

So that your student(s) may be best prepared for virtual learning after the Thanksgiving weekend, you will receive an email from your division head with instructions on what materials and schedules will be needed for the November 30th week. This email will be sent no later than Monday the 23rd.

Please make certain to read Sunday's Tov Lada'at for other important information about the weeks ahead.

B'shalom,
Rabbi Moshe
